Projects

Portfolio Website (Live View) – (Github)

Developed my personal Portofolio Website to show my projects, blog and contact information using modern web development technologies.

Nutribullet Clone (Live View) – (Github)

This website is a clone of the official Nutribullet site, with a custom design created by me using Tailwind CSS. The site is fully responsive, allowing users to access it on mobile devices. Additionally, I implemented AOS (Animate On Scroll) for enhanced visual effects.

Netflix Clone (Live View) – (Github)

This project is a Netflix clone that includes user authentication through Firebase, allowing users to create and manage accounts. I integrated the TMDB (The Movie Database) API to fetch and display a wide range of movies, along with detailed information for each title.

Education

- Frontend Developer Bootcamp (June 2022 – January 2023)
